~~PROPOSED~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER
AS AMENDED, PAGES 9-10

Honorable Nancy J. Koppe
United States Magistrate Judge

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 9 below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Local Rule 10-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

DEFINITIONS

1. The term “Confidential Information” shall mean and include information contained or disclosed in any materials, including documents, portions of documents, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admissions, trial testimony, deposition testimony, and transcripts of trial testimony and depositions, including data, summaries, and compilations derived therefrom, copies, abstracts, and any other format reproducing or capturing such information, as well as information disclosed orally in connection with settlement or other communications between the parties that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c). Pursuant to provisions below, Confidential Information may be designated as either “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL- ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

2. The term “Designating Party” shall mean a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

3. The terms “Disclosure” or “Discovery Material” shall mean all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

1 4. The term “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall mean
2 extremely sensitive “Confidential Information or Items,” disclosure of which to another Party or 3 Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by less 4 restrictive means, and subject to Paragraph 13(b) below.

5 5. The term “Non-Party” shall mean any natural person, partnership, corporation,
6 association, or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

7 6. The term “Party” shall mean any party to this action, including all of its officers, 8 directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 9 support staffs).

10 7. The term “Producing Party” shall mean a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure 11 or Discovery Material in this action.

12 8. The term “Protected Material” shall mean any Disclosure or Discovery Material that 13 is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES 14 ONLY.

15 9. The term “Receiving Party” shall mean a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery
16 Material from a Producing Party.

17 10. The term “documents” shall include, but shall not be limited to: documents;
18 correspondence; memoranda; electronically stored information; source code; bulletins; blueprints;
19 specifications; customer lists or other material that identify customers or potential customers; price
20 lists or schedules or other matter identifying pricing; minutes; telegrams; letters; statements; cancelled
21 checks; contracts; invoices; drafts; books of account; worksheets; notes of conversations; desk diaries;
22 appointment books; expense accounts; recordings; photographs; motion pictures; compilations from 23 which information can be obtained and translated into reasonably usable form through detection
24 devices; sketches; drawings; notes (including laboratory notebooks and records); reports;
25 instructions; disclosures; other writings; and models and prototypes and other physical objects.

26 11. The term “attorneys” shall mean outside counsel retained or employed by the Parties,
27 paralegals, secretaries, and other support staff of those attorneys, and litigation support vendors
28 utilized by said law firms (only so long as said vendors agree to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order by having an appropriate representative of the vendor execute a copy of the form attached hereto as Exhibit A on behalf of the vendor).

12. The term “independent expert” shall mean a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the case who has been retained by a Party’s attorneys to serve as an expert witness or as a litigation consultant in this case, and who is not a current employee of a Party or of a competitor of a Party and who, at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an employee of, or a non-litigation consultant of a party or competitor of a Party.

13. The term “non-independent expert” shall mean a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the case who has been retained by a party’s attorneys to serve as an expert witness or as a litigation consultant in this case, and who does not meet the definition of an independent expert as set forth in paragraph 12.

GENERAL RULES

14. Each Party to this litigation that produces or discloses any materials, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admission, trial testimony, deposition testimony, and transcripts of trial testimony and depositions, or other materials and/or information that the Producing Party believes should be subject to this Order may designate the same as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

a. Designation as “CONFIDENTIAL”: Any Party may designate information as “CONFIDENTIAL” only if, in the good faith belief of such Party and its attorneys, the unrestricted disclosure of such material could be potentially prejudicial to the business or operations of such Party.

b. Designation as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”: Any Party may designate information as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” only if, in the good faith belief of such party and its attorneys, the material constitutes proprietary or other confidential customer lists, pricing information, financial information, business plans, marketing plans, sales forecasts, information protected by a right of privacy, or trade secrets. The parties shall not designate technical information relating to the use or practice of patents as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY”. Other than as provided for herein, a Party may designate material as

1 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” by designating it as such, prior to
2 producing it to opposing counsel.

3 15. In the event the Producing Party elects to initially produce or disclose materials for 4 inspection by a Receiving Party (as opposed to the physical production of such materials), no marking
5 need be made by the Producing Party in advance of the initial inspection. For purposes of the initial 6 inspection, all materials produced shall be considered as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’
7 EYES ONLY,” and shall be treated as such pursuant to the terms of this Order. Thereafter, upon 8 selection of specified materials for copying by or other physical production to the Receiving Party, the 9 Producing Party shall, within a reasonable time prior to producing those materials to the Receiving
10 Party, mark the copies of those materials that contain Confidential Information with the appropriate
11 confidentiality marking. Materials may also be produced in the first instance with confidentiality 12 markings.

13 16. For documents (apart from transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 14 proceedings), the Producing Party shall affix the appropriate confidentiality legend to each page that 15 contains Confidential Information.

16 17. For Disclosures other than documents, and for any other tangible items, the Producing 17 Party shall affix, in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the 18 material or item is stored, the appropriate confidentiality legend. In the event a Receiving Party 19 generates any “hard copy” transcription or printout from any designated non-paper media (including, 20 but not limited to, documents produced in native electronic format), such Receiving Party must 21 stamp each page with the appropriate confidentiality legend, and the hard copy, transcription, or 22 printout shall be treated as it is designated.

23 18. For materials disclosed orally in the context of settlement or other communications 24 between the parties, it shall be sufficient for the Producing Party to identify the information as 25 Confidential Information pursuant to the terms of this Order during the course of the oral 26 communication or promptly thereafter, provided that, written confirmation of the particular 27 designation is made by the Producing Party promptly following the oral communication, and the 28 restrictions that inhere in the particular designation identified shall apply.

1 19. Whenever a deposition taken on behalf of any Party involves a disclosure of Confidential
2 Information of any Party:

3 a. said deposition or portions thereof shall be designated as containing Confidential
4 Information subject to the provisions of this Order; such designation shall be made on the record
5 whenever possible, but a Party may designate portions of depositions as containing Confidential
6 Information after transcription of the proceedings; if a Party reserves the right on the record, that 7 Party shall have until fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the deposition transcript to inform
8 the other Party or Parties to the action of the portions of the transcript designated “CONFIDENTIAL”
9 or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”;

10 b. the Producing Party shall have the right to exclude from attendance at said
11 deposition, during such time as the Confidential Information is to be disclosed, any person other than 12 the deponent, attorneys (including their staff and associates), the court reporter, and the person(s) agreed 13 upon pursuant to paragraphs 20-23 below; and 14 c. the originals of said deposition transcripts and all copies thereof shall 15 bear the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES

16 ONLY,” as appropriate, and shall be separately bound according to the portions of the transcript 17 bearing each such designation, and should the original or any copy thereof ultimately be presented to 18 the Court for filing, the filing party shall attempt to file same under seal, identified as being subject
19 to this Order, and protected from being opened except by order of this Court.

20 20. All Protected Material shall not be disclosed by the Receiving Party to anyone other 21 than those persons designated herein as appropriate to the particular designation, and shall be 22 handled in the manner set forth below.

23 21. Upon receipt of material or records designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
24 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”, and except as otherwise compelled by law, the Receiving Party may 25 only disclose the material or records to the following:
26
27
28

- 25 author or recipient thereof, or are otherwise shown to have authored or received the designated

9 agreement is reached) by the Parties submitting to the Court a joint stipulated motion for the Court’s
10 consideration (not more than 5 pages for each side setting forth their respective positions). The Party 11 seeking disclosure shall provide its statement first; the party opposing viewing shall draft a response and 12 provide it to the other side, which shall then be able to modify its portion in response. The Parties shall 13 endeavor to file this document within 10 days of the date the Party seeking disclosure first provides its 14 statement.” If the Court does not permit such a filing, then the Party seeking to make the disclosure 15 shall file a motion per applicable rules.

16 22. Except as otherwise provided herein, material designated “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be 17 viewed only by the Parties and their employees, by attorneys of the Receiving Party, by independent

23 Exhibit A:

24 a. Deponents but only to the extent necessary to assist in the conduct or 25 preparation of this litigation;

26 b. Executives of a Party who are required to participate in policy decisions with 27 reference to this action;

1 c. In-house counsel (including legal staff) of a Party who are required to 5 as Exhibit "A";

6 d. Technical personnel of the parties with whom attorneys for the Parties find it
7 necessary to consult, in the discretion of such attorneys, in preparation for trial of this action.

8 e. Jury consultants, mock jurors, focus group members, or research group 9 participants selected by jury consultants, by jury consultants or by trial counsel in preparation for 10 trial;

11 f. Independent litigation support vendors, including legal interpreters,

13 g. Individuals who either are designated in the document or material itself as an 14 author or recipient thereof, or are otherwise shown to have authored or received the designated 15 document or material, provided that the disclosure to such individuals shall be limited to the specific 16 Protected Material originally disclosed to such individuals in the particular document. Such 17 individuals shall not retain any Protected Material without the consent of the Producing Party.

18 23. With respect to Protected Material any person indicated on the face of the document to 19 be its originator, author, or a recipient of a copy thereof, may be shown the same.

20 24. All Protected Material and any and all reproductions thereof, shall be retained in the 21 custody of the attorneys for the Receiving Party, except that experts authorized to view such 22 information under the terms of this Order may retain custody of copies such as are necessary for their 23 participation in this litigation.

24 ~~25. Before any Protected Material is filed with the Court, for any purpose, the Party seeking to file such materials shall seek permission~~
25 ~~of the Court to file said materials under seal, unless the Designating Party so waives the~~ 26 ~~confidentiality designation. Any request to file such material under seal must comply with Local Rule~~
27

~~10-5. Confidential Information may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Confidential Information at issue.~~

26. At any stage of these proceedings, any Party may object to a designation of materials or information as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL- ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY. The Party objecting to the confidentiality designation shall notify, in writing, attorneys for the Producing Party of the objected-to materials and state the grounds for the objection. If the dispute is not resolved consensually between the Parties within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of such a notice of objections, the objecting Party may move the Court for a ruling on the objection. The materials at issue shall be treated as Confidential Information, as designated by the Designating Party, until the Court has ruled on the objection or the matter has been otherwise resolved.

27. All Confidential Information shall be held in confidence by those inspecting or receiving it, and shall be used only for purposes of this action. The attorneys for each Party, and each person receiving Confidential Information, shall take reasonable precautions to prevent the unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure of such information. If Confidential Information is disclosed to any person other than a person authorized by this Order, the Party responsible for the unauthorized disclosure must immediately bring all pertinent facts relating to the unauthorized disclosure to the attention of the other Parties and, without prejudice to any rights and remedies of the other parties, make every effort to prevent further disclosure by the Party and by the person(s) receiving the unauthorized disclosure.

28. If a Party, through inadvertence, produces any Confidential Information without labeling or marking or otherwise designating it as such in accordance with this Order, the Producing Party may give written notice to the Receiving Party that the document or thing produced is deemed Confidential Information, and that the document or thing produced should be treated as such in accordance with that designation under this Order. The Receiving Party must treat the materials as confidential, once the Producing Party so notifies the Receiving Party. The Producing Party must promptly provide the Receiving Party with replacement materials that bear the appropriate confidentiality markings, and the Receiving Party shall, in return, provide prompt confirmation of the destruction of the replaced materials. If the Receiving Party has disclosed the materials before receiving the designation, the Receiving Party must notify the Producing Party in writing of each such

1 disclosure to the extent reasonably possible and reasonably cooperate with the Producing Party in 2 attempting to retrieve them and halt their further dissemination.

3 29. Nothing herein shall prejudice the right of any Party to object to the production of any 4 Discovery Information on the grounds that the material is protected as privileged or as work product.

5 30. Nothing in this Order shall bar the attorneys from rendering advice to their clients with 6 respect to this litigation and, in the course thereof, relying upon any information designated as 7 Confidential Information, provided that the contents of the information shall not be disclosed in 8 violation of this Order.

9 31. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any Party to oppose production of 10 any information for lack of relevance or any other ground other than the mere presence of Confidential
11 Information. The existence of this Order shall not be used by any Party as a basis for discovery that is 12 otherwise not proper under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

13 32. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent disclosure of Confidential Information if 14 such disclosure is required by subpoena, court order or any other legal obligation. Should a Party be 15 required by law, including 37 CFR 1.56, or by order of the Court to disclose Confidential
16 Information, notice should be provided to the Producing Party prior to any such disclosure. The 17 Producing Party shall have seven (7) days from the date of the notice to object to any disclosure of 18 the Confidential Information. If the Producing Party makes a timely objection, the Receiving Party 19 shall not produce the Confidential Information absent a court order. However, the burden shall be 20 on the objecting, Producing Party to seek protection relating to the commanded disclosure in a 21 timely manner. If the Producing Party fails to take such action, it shall be deemed to have waived its 22 objection to the commanded disclosure.

23 33. The restrictions and obligations herein do not apply to nor prevent a Party from 24 offering into evidence and referring to any documents or information at trial that may have been 25 designated as Confidential Information.

26 34. Within thirty (30) calendar days of final termination of this action, including any and 27 all appeals, attorneys for the Receiving Party shall either return the Protected Material to the 28 Producing Party, including any copies, excerpts, and summaries thereof, or shall destroy same at the option of the Receiving Party, and shall purge all such material from all machine-readable media on which it resides. Notwithstanding the foregoing, attorneys for each party may retain all pleadings, briefs, memoranda, motions, and other documents filed with the Court that refer to or incorporate information designated as CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL- ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, and will continue to be bound by this Order with respect to all such retained material. Further, attorney work product materials that contain Confidential Information need not be destroyed, but, if they are not destroyed, the person in possession of the attorney work product will continue to be bound by this Order with respect to all such retained Confidential Information. The provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order shall survive the termination of this Action, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties or ordered by the Court. The Court retains jurisdiction even after termination of this action to enforce this Order and to make such deletions from or amendments, modifications, and additions to the Order as the Court may deem appropriate. The Parties hereto reserve all rights to apply to the Court at any time, before or after termination of this action, for an order modifying this Order seeking further protection against disclosure or use of claimed confidential information.

35. The restrictions and obligations set forth herein shall not apply to any information that:

- a. the Parties agree should not be designated Confidential Information;
- b. the Parties agree, or the Court rules, is already public knowledge;
- c. the Parties agree, or the Court rules, has become public knowledge other than as a result of disclosure by the Receiving Party, its employees, or its agents in violation of this Order; or
- d. has come or shall come into the Receiving Party's legitimate knowledge independently of and prior to the production by the Producing Party as demonstrated by pre-production documentation.

36. The restrictions and obligations herein shall not be deemed to prohibit discussions of any Confidential Information with anyone if that person already has or obtains legitimate possession thereof.

37. If material is produced in discovery that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial preparation or work product material (“privilege”), the Party making the claim may notify any Receiving Party of the claim for privilege and the basis for it. In accordance with Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d)-(e), such a production or disclosure does not operate as a waiver of any privilege associated with any such production or disclosure. After being notified by a Party claiming privilege that material produced by that Party is subject to a claim of privilege, a Receiving Party (a) must promptly return or destroy the specified material and any copies it has, (b) must not sequester, use, or disclose the material until the claim is resolved, and (c) must take reasonable steps to retrieve the material if the Party disclosed it before being notified. These obligations include a restriction against presenting the material to the Court for a determination of the claim. The Party making the claim must serve a privilege log that complies with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5) within fourteen (14) calendar days of notifying any Receiving Party of the claim. The party making the claim must also preserve the material until the claim is resolved. The matter shall be resolved on the basis of the information set forth in the privilege log and in accordance with the standards, laws, and rules pertaining to the privilege(s) claimed. This paragraph 37 expressly incorporates the protections of Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d)-(e). Specifically, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d), the inadvertent production of privileged or work product protected electronically stored information is not a waiver of any applicable privilege or protection in the pending case or in any other federal or state proceeding.

38. The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in response to a subpoena in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” under this Order. Such information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections. Additionally, any Party may designate Confidential Information produced by a Non-Party as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”, subject to the limitations set forth herein.

40. The Court may modify the terms and conditions of this Order for good cause, or in the interest of justice, or on its own order at any time in these proceedings.
